SANDRA COOPER-WALTHER

This book is dedicated to the memory of Sandra Cooper-Walther . . . Prairie School faculty member 1978-1982.

We, The Prairie School Family, are all benefactors of the self-sacrificing gifts of talent, time and love given by Sandy. May the memories of those gifts be a constant reminder of an inspirational colleague and friend.

HEADMASTER • ANTHONY B. FRUHAUF

A LITTLE ON THE SERIOUS SIDE

One of the great lessons that all of us here have learned this year is that nothing can really be taken for granted.

Day in and day out, we prepare ouselves for our time together at Prairie, we arrive and walk through familiar doors and corridors and work in familiar classroom settings; we know just about every corner of our fieldhouse and athletic fields, and we are pretty much at home now in our new Performing Arts Center. Nearly each day, the same people are here, and we have a pretty good feel for how they will think or react or talk to us from one time to the next.

And then, without warning, a member of our family is suddenly and even violenty torn away from our midst.

Afterwards, some important things must happen: we must pass through shock, hurt, anger, and finally acceptance; we turn to help each other; caringly, we institute remembrances and memorials - including the dedication page of this yearbook - and we learn to live with loss.

Yet, another very important mission has been given to us this year, and it is important whether you are excited about going to the Middle School next year, or becoming a Prairie senior, or going off to a faraway university. That mission is to discover how, every day, to look with new eyes upon each person we meet and to find gladness in his or her being here.

Indeed, we can try to see everything in fresh color each day and not let anyone or anything fade into black and white and grays; then we will have mastered a very important lesson and created literally hundreds of living memorials to someone we have known and lost.

Song

My eyes are dark; an open story wide they bleed in lyric fury:
sing a song of love and hate!
spin a song of cold heart's ache!
Burn in fire beneath the sea,
drown in gasps in the summer air,
smile at silent misery,
choke on coughs of rough despair.
Sail on seas of broken souls, dive in wastes of burning sands,
fill your heart with screaming holes,
voyage far to barren lands.
Weave long bracelets of morning dew,
dress in frost and hoary ice,
dine on rosebuds, sharp thorns too,
trade your wealth for tasteless spice.
Fly on wings to heavan's door,
travel down to hell's fiery gate.
When you've done all this and even more return; by a hearth's warm glow I wait.

Sorrow's Query

Is my hope gone, that I should die or that my faith shall fly away?
Shall I sit in a tower e'er to lie,
and never see a better day?
With this fleeting pain should I regress unto a fool, or to a clown?
Shall I my wounds ever seek redress?
Or will my life in sorrow drown?
Shall I live to hope and love?
Shall I rot in anguish final since my dreams have fled like a wounded dove at the sound of this damning, last denial.
It is not easy in this place to dwell which my faded memories make a very Hell.

.A Senior Ballad

The truck it comes with money full
To a town of small size.
The people fear a sum so large-
They wait with watchful eyes.

Over there! at right a gunman shows,
Still here from days gone past.
Look there, now more villians appear!
A revege is gained at last

Two Brinks guards fall from stray bullets, Chaos as more bullets sound.
The money gone but not the thugs,
The Weather Underground.

Blood flowed forth upon the clean ground,
And on little Nyack.
Many arrested but not all,
Be sure they will be back.

My Bio Poem

Matt
Overweight, smart, great, friendly
Brother of Mitch
Lover of pie, Big Macs, ice cream
Who feels school days are too long, summer is too short, he needs more sisters
Who fears school, strange dogs
My brother when he is mad
Who would like to see his allowance higher, another sister, cost of candy go down.

VARSITY SOCCER

Prairie's soccer team had another impressive year. Thirteen members actually started the season by playing nine matches in Europe in the summer. The team then defended their Parkside Invitational title by defeating Kenosha Bradford and Racine Park. They then won the six games before losing to Milwaukee Pius (the only team to beat them in 1980). The team finished the regular season with 13 wins-2 losses and 1 tie. Again they were picked to play in the semi-finals 2-1 to Green Bay Premontre. Tom D'Orazio was picked as MVP by his teammates and was also chosen as All-Conference and All County, Denis Navratil and John Lauer were also picked on the All-County team.

The Junior Varsity Soccer team had one of its better years under the coaching of Brian Dunk. Even with the promotion of Mark Johnson to the Varsity, the JV's continued to show progress. The defense was built around Keeper Ken Druley and the offense was keyed around Pat Thom.

The 1981 Girl's field hockey team became keenly aware of the phrase "Lady Luck" as they lost early games because of failure to score. Persistence and hard work payed off! The girls defeated first place teams University School and St. Mary's Academy in the latter part of the season and finished with a .500 record.

In past years the JV field hockey team served as a learning experience for future varsity participation, and this year was no different. If continual improvement is the measure of success, this year's team was very successful.

The Hawkettes had a successful season winning the Racine County Meet, the regionals, and finishing 4th in the State Meet. Veronica Faustino and Kristin Falstad won their county and regional titles and finished 3rd and 4th in the State Meet at No. 1 and No. 2 singles respectively. Jenny Nilles and Emily Ericson won the regionals at No.1 doubles while losing in the quarterfinals in the State Meet. Kim Hammes and Missy Campbell lost only one match in the State Meet finals at No. 2. doubles. Ann Falstad played No. 3 singles and was runner-up in the County Meet. Our No. 3 doubles varsity team was Sue Tredwell and Jenny Korndoefer while Julie Ericson played No. 4. It was a fun season as all of the Varsity and JV players improved a tremendous amount. Veronica, Kristin, Jenny and Emily made first team All-County, while Missy and Kim made second team and Ann Falstad was honorable mention.

Cross Country

Dedication, discipline, personal i provement, and youth are the key wor describing the 1981 cross country tea at Prairie. Fourteen people came out the team this year, and every one of the worked: if Coach Wallace said to run se en miles, they ran seven miles or more he said they were going to run ten qua ter-mile intervals, they ran, trying as ha on the last as on the first. The result of t dedication was great personal improv ment: in the race in which senior capta

The 1981-1982 boy's basketball squad had an interesting season. After an early pre-Christmas 3-4 record the Hawks went on a tear in January and February winning 9 out of 10 games in January and early February.

Coach Goree's 1981-1982 junior varsity squad worked hard during the year and worked to improve. Although the overall record was not overwhelming it is emphasized the record of any JV squad is not the determining factor.

With continued hard work and strong determination the young Hawks could develop into a fine team with many positive experiences ahead!

GIRLS VARSITY BASKETBALL

The girl's varsity basketball team showed much improvement throughout the year. What they lacked in experience and talent, was more than made up in hustle, determination and the will to succeed. To those seniors who are graduating, thank-you for your time and effort.

GIRLS J-V BASKETBALL

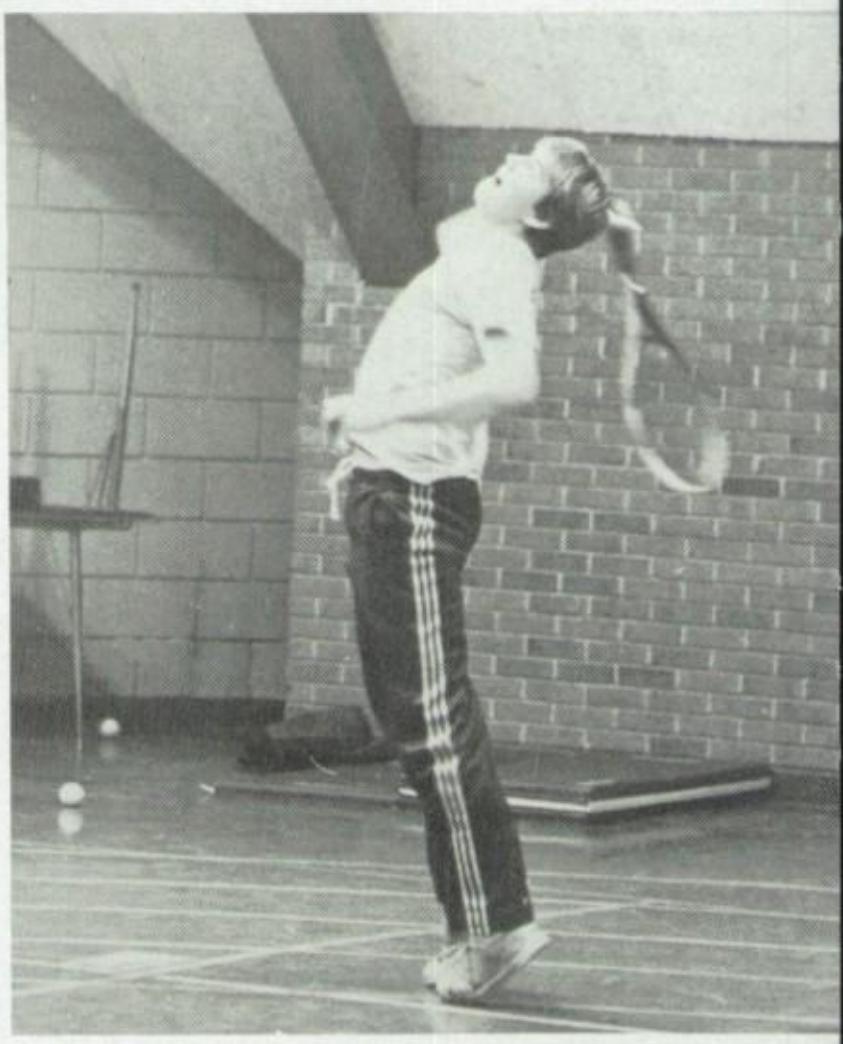
The 1981-1982 JV girl's team was short on victories but long in progress, learning, and enthusiasm. Coach Clark in her first year as JV coach noted considerable improvement in both individual and team skills alike.

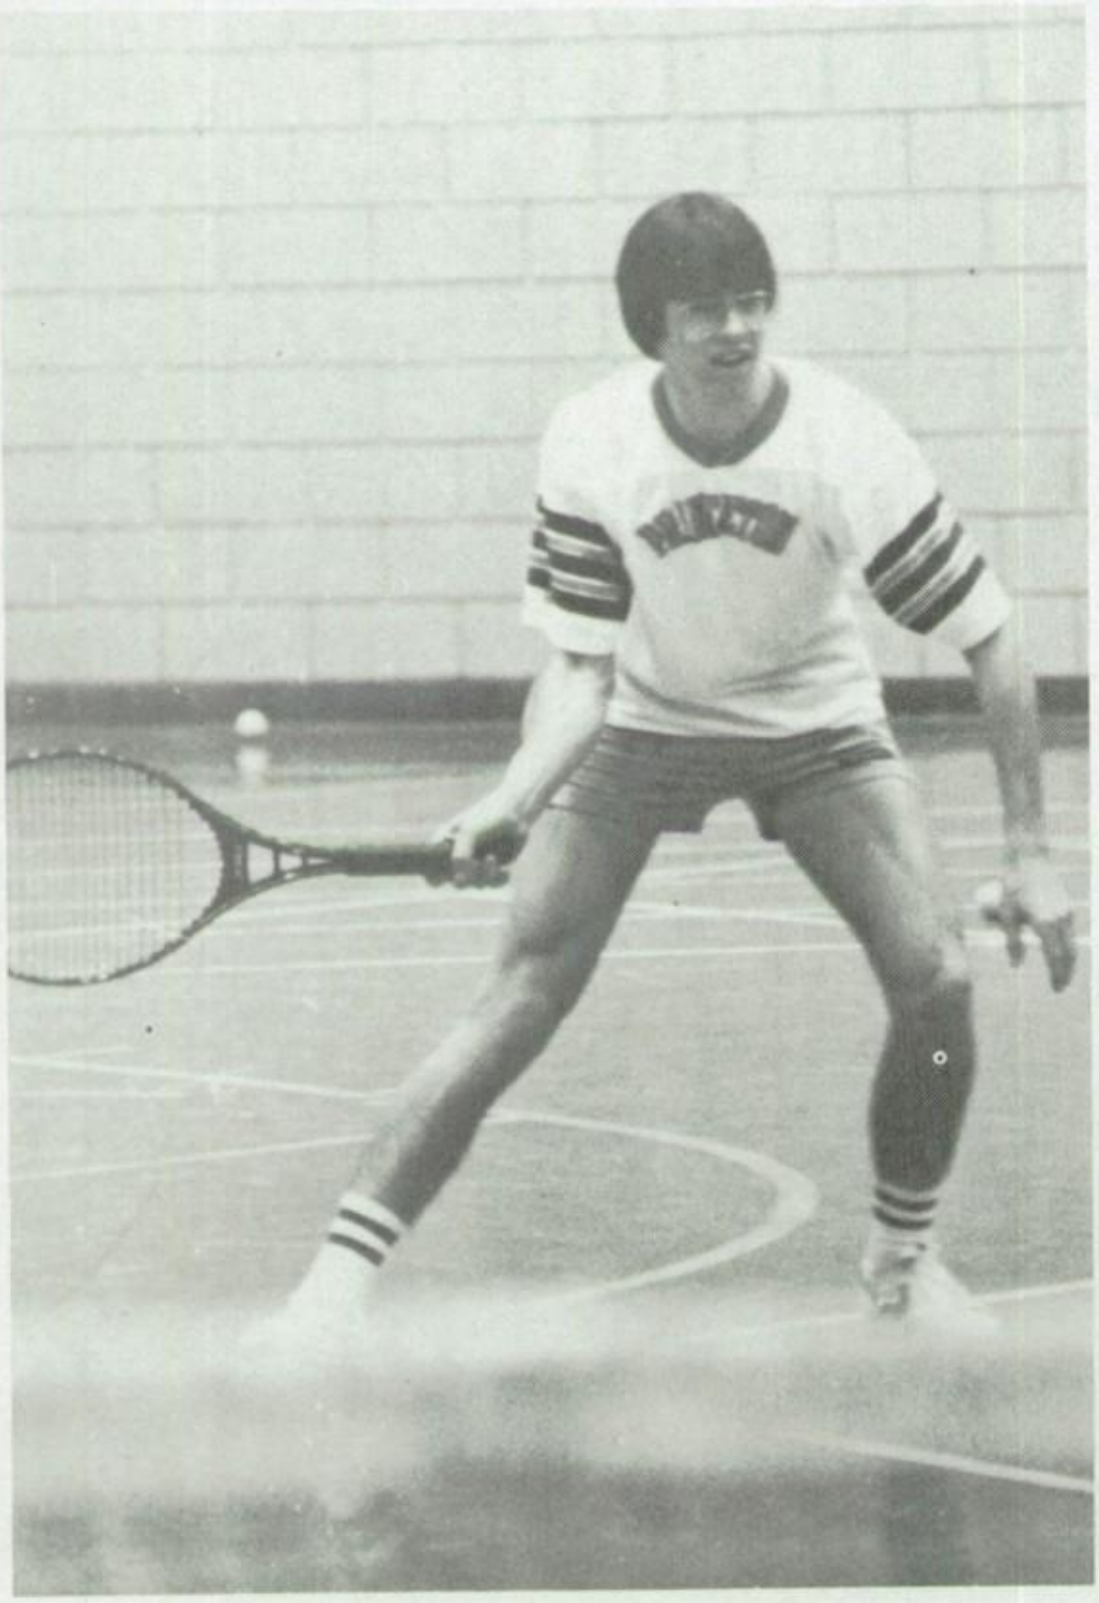
Coach Bill

Boy's Tennis

With the experience of Coach Swanson and a corps of dedicated lettermen the season looks very bright and is potentially successful. Good Luck

-The 1982 Etc. Staff





The girl's softball season has not yet begun, but under the direction of coach Bowersox and the effort of returning veterans, the 1982 season will be a successful one. Good Luck

Now I've gained some understanding of the only world that we see.
Things that I once dreamed of have become reality.

These walls that still surround me still contain the same old me.
Just one more who's searching for the world that ought to be.

All your life you've been waiting for your chance where you'll fit into the plan.
But you're the master of your own destiny,
So give and take the best that you can.

I see my future at the rainbow's end ... happy hours ... timeless friends ...
And if I ever chance to find my way ... rest assured ... I will stay ...

You may see your life as a compromise ...
You may live to find the promise dancin' in your eyes ...
Nobody knows ... it's meant to be ...
Let the magic of the moment say it all to me.

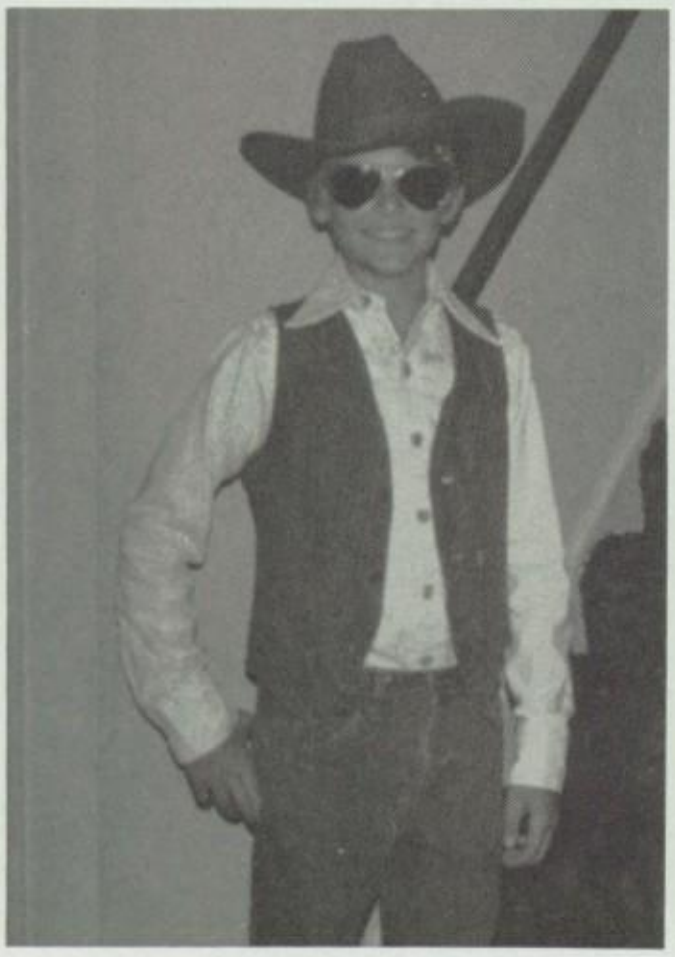
RICKY GEASE



I am satisfied-I see, dance, laugh, sing;
In all people I see myself, and the good or bad
I say of myself I say of them.
I know I am solid and sound, I know I am deathless,
I do not trouble my spirit to vindicate itself or be understood.
I exist as I am, that is enough, I sit content.

A shoulder to cry on,
An ear to bend,
Money to borrow,
Clothes to lend.
Friday night movies,
Afternoon walks,
Being together
our "private" talks.
Mending our hearts,
Crying those tears,
Voicing our fears.
Our memories together,
May they never end,
Always together,
Forever friends.

Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God.
And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Jesus Christ.
Philippians 4:6,7 (N.I.V.)

Tis' the grace of God that brought me this far and grace that will bring me home.

W. Somerset Maugham

Well the lush separation enfolds you and the products of wealth push you along the bow way
of their spiritless
undying selves.
And you spin in the slipstream tideless-unreasoningpaddle right out of the mess.

The seeds that once were we take flight and fly,
Winnowed to earth, or whirled along the sky.
Not lost but diminished, Life lives on.
It is the lives, the lives, the lives that die.

Look at me, I'm a spec of sand
And I'm building dreams in the strangest land,
Tell me why do I care, tell me why do I care?
Everytime that I'm feelin' down,
Oh they pick me up and then they spin me 'round.
Tell me where do we go, tell me where do we go from here?
